

13TH ANNUAL ARTS IN THE MIDDLE FINE ARTS FESTIVAL June 5-6, 2027

ARTIST PROSPECTUS

Known for fine art, a beautiful venue, outstanding music, and our popular AIM Beverage Tent, Arts in the Middle was voted in the top three Best of Festivals in The Rivah Magazine 2024, and was twice voted a Best Art Event in Eastern Virginia in Virginia Living's Best Of Magazine (#1 in 2019). Artists give the Festival top ratings; some report us their favorite of the season for the venue, the quality of art, size, camaraderie among artists, hospitality from friendly/supportive volunteers, and ease of load and unload. The show features 100 juried artists from across the country in a wide variety of media. Promoted as "a day (or 2)" in the country for art aficionados by our terrific PR team, we draw a sizable crowd to the festival from surrounding urban areas, including Richmond, Williamsburg, Tidewater, Northern VA & Washington. We are an arts lovers' destination.

Gifted with the "perfect festival setting" at 17th C. Hewick Estate the AIM "Artist Row" is nestled on expansive lawns with a backdrop of beautiful period buildings. Majestic trees shade the Row. The exhibit layout along a landscaped gravel path invites a stop at each tent. Customers enjoy the art, the music and perhaps a glass of champagne as they stroll the show.

In addition to the Beverage Tent, the AIM Hospitality Tent hosts top notch musicians, culinary arts from local foodies, and is within viewing distance of uniquely creative children's activities.

You can drive in close to your tent to load and unload before parking your large and small vehicles in free public parking steps away from the show entrance. An army of friendly volunteers are at your service. Awards are presented at our catered Saturday Night Artist Reception.

Close by is the charming village of Urbanna ~ a popular waterfront destination for week-end visitors. In Virginia's River Realm where there is much to see and do, you may be tempted to make this a "working vacation" in Coastal Virginia. We will be happy to help you.

ARTS IN THE MIDDLE (AIM) FINE ARTS FESTIVAL POLICIES & GUIDELINES

The AIM Team works to create a welcoming environment for our artists and patrons while upholding high standards for a fine arts festival. By applying to our show, you agree to abide by all guidelines and policies of the show and related requests of show administration during the event. If our show officials find problems they will ask for the issue to be remedied.

Policy & Guidelines, General Information

On-site Set-Up and Break-Down To protect the historic and picturesque venue, driving is not allowed on the lawn. Artists are offered the convenience of drive-in/drive-out unloading and loading along the gravel drive in front of their tents. You must check in with on-site staff before set-up Fri. & Sat. Early Set-up: Fri. Noon - 6 pm. There is no Friday night security. Set up and leave your tent at your own risk.

Regular setup: Sat - 6-9:30 am. All cars must be off festival grounds by 9:30!

Break-down: Sun - 3:00 pm. Artists may not close their exhibit before 3:00.

No cars allowed on the festival grounds during show hours.

Parking: Artist and public parking is steps away from the show entrance. Golf carts move from the parking lot to Artist Row during show hours for customers with special needs and help with large purchases.

Security: Security is available during all day Sat/Sun and overnight Sat.

Weather: This is a rain or shine event. Be prepared for spring weather with rain gear for yourself, coverage for your artwork, and tools for securing your tent. Tents will be sited under large shade trees for maximum sun protection, but we cannot guarantee total protection. Be prepared for some sun exposure. And, be prepared for Spring insects!

Food and Live Entertainment: Outstanding live music, local food and drinks, and popular AIM Beverage Tent in the hospitality on Artist Row both days.

Children's Activities: Kids are given Jr. Judge ribbons in the Welcome Tent to present to their favorite artists. The Children's Tent offers unique and creative activities specific to kids but engaging to the kid in all of us.

First Aid: First aid in the Welcome Tent.

Student Artists Program: The Emerging Artist Tent offers talented local high school and college students the opportunity to become personally involved in a fine arts event, including professionally judged for Best Student Art Award.

Overnight Accommodations: Our Host Home program offers a limited number of local residents willing to host artists into their home for Friday and Saturday nights. Let us know early if you are interested in a host home. A complete list of other available accommodations and discounts can be found at our website: artsinthemiddle.org as well as virginiasriverrealm.com.

Cancellation Policy: Application Fee is non-refundable. If notified by April 1st 100% booth fee refunded. If notified by May 1st 50% booth fee refunded. If notified any time after May 1st, the booth fee is non-refundable.

Policy & Guidelines: AIM 2027 Application Instructions

On-Line Application: For artist ease, use Zapplication. Please visit the Arts in the Middle page at www.zapplication.org to apply to this show.

Email Application: Zapplication is preferred but submission by email is acceptable. Artists may scan the completed Application Form below and submit with images to artsinthemiddlefestival@gmail.com and mail application fee as outlined below. Applications are not processed until fee is received. If you need application assistance: please contact Brindley Sears by email brindley8@gmail.com or by phone 804-695-4585.

Images: Five images must accompany the application: 4 images of art representative of that to be exhibited in the show (titled and identified by medium type) and 1 image of the exhibition tent. Zapplication is set up to receive images. Email applications must include clear image attachments (scanned or photographed). Slides and copied paper prints will not be accepted by the jurors. Images presented with insufficient clarity for review, will be returned and/or better quality requested before they can be juried. Application Fee A non-refundable jury fee of $30 must accompany the application (or $50 if late fee applicable.)

Payment Options: Zapplication payment may be made by credit card or PayPal. Email applicants write checks to Arts in the Middle and mail to AIM, PO Box 982, Urbanna, VA 23175.

Application Deadline: January 19, 2027 or February 15 with $50 late fee.

Collaboration: Two artists with similar artwork may share a tent space. Both must apply & be juried separately. In the case of acceptance of only one of the two applicants, only the accepted artist's works may be displayed.

Jury Process: A panel of professionals will review for artistic excellence and a well-balanced presentation. You will be notified by email (zapp or regular - whichever is applicable) on 2/20/26. Jury decisions are final!

Booth Fees: By March 28 artists wishing to accept their invitation to exhibit must pay for the assigned booth fee of $225 ($450 for double booth). Failure to pay by the deadlines may result in revocation of the invitation and immediate invitation of an alternate from the waiting list.

Cancellation Policy: Application Fee is non-refundable. If notified by April 1st 100% booth fee refunded. If notified by May 1st 50% booth fee refunded. If notified any time after May 1st, the booth fee is non-refundable.

Policy & Guidelines: AIM Festival Artist Participation Rules

Artists violating the rules of Arts in the Middle Fine Art Show can be asked to leave the show with no refunds & become ineligible for future shows. If you have questions or need clarification of a rule, email artsinthemiddlefestival@gmail.com and a show leader will contact you.

Tents & Weights: In keeping with the fine art nature of this show, exhibits must be in professional 10'x10' white top tent canopies with secure side curtains. For the safety of you and your neighbor, tents must be secured with appropriate weights. A minimum of 40 pounds per tent leg is required. (eg: tube weights, solid sand bag weights, concrete filled buckets that look clean, stabilizer bars with solid sand bags, weight plates or dumbbells on each tent leg.) Not allowed: Colored tents; lightweight framed tents with no weights, raw concrete blocks, bricks, plastic sand bags, or anything that doesn't look clean and professional.

Eligible Works: All exhibited works must be the original creation of the artist submitting the application, and must be of the quality, category and body of work shown in the images juried. Jurors on site may ask for evidence of the displaying artist's involvement in the work.

Reproductions: In keeping with the fine arts nature of this event, reproductions (photography and paintings) must be from the Artist's original work, in limited editions of 250 or less, signed, numbered and identified as a reproduction. Giclees or reproduced paintings are limited to bins and 25% of the hanging space.

Bins: Bins and racks should be kept to a minimum and be professionally presented. Racks and bins can be back-filled as needed.

Not Acceptable: No buy/sell, mass produced or manufactured items, gourmet foods, greenware, kits, or work other than that produced by the exhibitor are permitted. No bazaar crafts, crocheting, knitting, decoupage, candles or craft wearing apparel. Final interpretation of commercial status will be made by the Arts in the Middle Administration Committee, and show officials may contact applicant for additional information.

Artist Presence: Booths must remain open and the artist present during show hours on Saturday and Sunday to show and sell their own works. No dealers, artists reps, agents or other middlemen allowed. Volunteers are available to give you short breaks.

Liability: While artists are not required to carry liability insurance, coverage is a growing trend among exhibitors and is strongly recommended by Arts in the Middle for protection against damage, loss or injury. Participating artists are fully responsible for the safety and security of their own exhibit area and if anything from that exhibit damages or injures anyone else's exhibit or persons. Affordable short-term policies can be purchased through insurance companies.

Sales & Taxes: Artists retain all revenue from their sales with no commission due to Arts in the Middle. Artists must report & pay their own 5.3% sales tax directly to VA Dept. of Taxation. Forms and information can be downloaded from www.tax.virginia.gov.

Fees: To participate in this event all show related fees must be paid!
